

Dear students,

we are looking forward to you studying with us during the summer 2023!

1. COURSES

The majority of our courses is taught in German as you can see here: <https://jogustine.uni-mainz.de> → Vorlesungsverzeichnis → Sommersemester 2023 → FB 02 Sozialwissenschaften, Medien und Sport → Politikwissenschaft

There are, though, a number of courses taught in English:

At introductory level:

+ 1st/2nd year seminar: "Introduction to International Relations" (Wednesday, 14-16 hrs.)

At advanced B.A. - level:

+ seminar: "A new systemic competition? EU Democracy Support and the Influence of China" (Friday, 10-14 hrs. every 2nd week)

+ seminar: "The Politics of Digital Capitalism" (Tuesday, 10-12 hrs.)

+ seminar: "Populism in Comparative Perspective - Citizens and Democracy" (Wednesday, 12-14 hrs.)

+ seminar: "EU- Institutions and Decision Making / EU-Simulation" (Tuesday, 12-14 hrs.)

At M.A.-level

+ seminar: "The Politics of Global Finance" (Tuesday, 18-20 hrs.)

+ seminar: "Retreat of Multilateralism? The Crisis of the Liberal World Order and its Impact on Europe" (Monday, 18-20 hrs.)

+ seminar: "EU External Policy" (Monday, 12-14 hrs.)

In addition to the courses offered by the Department of Political Science, you can choose from a wide variety of courses taught in English by other Departments; a list is being provided for you by our International Office: Gutenberg International School Services \(GIS\).

Of particular interest to students of Political Science are the courses offered by the faculty of the Social Sciences for all guest students from abroad. You find more information concerning these courses at <https://jogustine.uni-mainz.de> → Vorlesungsverzeichnis → Sommersemester 2023 → FB 02 – Sozialkunde, Medien und Sport → Fächerübergreifende Veranstaltungen.

+ seminar (5 ECTS cr.): "The World at 8 Billion – Is there a Sustainable Future for a Growing Population?" (four sessions: two 14-16 hrs., two 14-18 hrs.; three of the four sessions will take place on Friday, one of the sessions on Saturday)

+ seminar (3 ECTS cr.): "Media and Politics in the Holy Land" (Wednesday, 16-18 hrs.)

+ lecture & tutorial (5 ECTS cr.): "CRISS: Contemporary Research in Social Sciences" (lecture: Wednesday, 18-20 hrs., tutorial: Friday, 12-14 hrs.)

+ tutorial (3 ECTS cr.): "Academic Boosting Class: Research in Social Sciences" (Wednesday, 12-14 hrs.)

2. ECTS credits

The number of ECTS credits you can achieve per course IN POLITICAL SCIENCE depends on the type of exam you take in order to complete the course:

- lecture: please contact your instructor, inform him/her that you are a guest student from abroad and that you need to acquire ECTS cr. He or she will, then, tell you what you are expected to do in order to achieve 4 ECTS cr. (oral exam OR written exam OR essay).
- seminars: As a rule you have to submit a term paper in seminars:
 - At introductory level, you are expected to submit a 10- to 12-page paper - if successful you earn 5 ECTS cr.;
 - At advanced level, you are expected to submit a paper of roughly 20 pages in order to earn 9 ECTS cr. But you are welcome to contact your instructor whether he or she will accept a shorter paper for 5 ECTS cr. as well.

As an exception and provided the agreement of your instructor, it is also possible to earn 3 ECTS cr. by submitting course work on a regular basis.

In order to complete the seminars successfully, it is very helpful to attend the tutorial: "Academic Boosting Class: Research in Social Sciences" (see above) in order to learn how to write a "Hausarbeit" – a term paper – according to our specifications.

3. ADMISSION

In order to be admitted to the courses of your choice, please get in touch with me PRIOR to the registration phase which is between April 11 (Tuesday) and April 13 (Thursday), 13 hrs., by sending an e-mail to schmitt@politik.uni-mainz.de.

- I will be able to register you for all courses offered by the Department of Political Science. I cannot register you for courses offered by other Departments – you need to contact Gutenberg International School Services (gis@international.uni-mainz.de) to learn who is in charge there of registering you (this applies to German courses, too).
- In order to make sure that the courses fit your interests and your prior knowledge, we will have to "meet" BEFORE registration starts. If we only meet at the end of the registration phase or afterwards, there is no guarantee that we will be able to admit you to the courses of your choice.
- As I will be on vacation between March 31 and April 10 (sorry for that), it would be perfect if you sent me an e-mail before March 30th so that we can meet per "TEAMS" or, even better, in my office (GFG 04-439).

4. CONTACT

I would be very glad if we all met before the lecture period starts, and, thus, I invite you for coffee and cookies on Friday, April 14, 2023, at 16 hrs. We can discuss everything that needs discussing before lectures start, and I will show you around the building. I am looking forward to seeing you in Georg Forster-Gebäude, 4th floor, 04-401.

Dear students: I wish you all the very best for your term abroad at JGU, but most importantly: please keep well. If you have any questions concerning your studies of Political Science, please let me know. As far as all other matters are concerned: please contact the persons in charge, but if this is not possible: please let me know – I will assist you in any way possible.

Kindest wishes,
Annette Schmitt
